DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Devlin et al. (EP0624004A1).

As per claim 1, Devlin et al. disclosed a surface mountable high power block up-converter having a mixer configured to receive an IF frequency signal and a local oscillator signal and outputs an RF frequency signal within a millimeter wave or higher band (fig. 3, col. 1/ln. 41-col. 2/ln. 11, col. 3/ln. 22-49).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2-7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Devlin et al. (EP0624004A1).

As per claims 2 and 6-7, as stated above in claim 1, Devlin et al. further disclosed the surface mountable high power block up-converter is enclosed and surface mountable.

Devlin et al. do not specifically disclosed that the mixer is of sub-harmonic type. However, such is notoriously well known in the art that the examiner takes Official Notice of such. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize such sub-harmonic mixer, well known, in place of the mixer of Devlin, in order to ensures that the harmonic is not generated in the mixer but also provide the sub-harmonic mixer operating with an identical frequency harmonic of the local-oscillator.

As per claim 3-4, Devlin et al. do not disclosed an insert coupled to the high power amplification device. However, such is notoriously well known in the art that the examiner takes Official Notice of such. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide such high thermal conductivity and expansion insert to the device of Devlin in order to limit the level of power dissipation and improve heat dissipation within the device.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 08/30/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The Applicant's stated that "Devlin does not disclose a block up-converter that is both a high power and high frequency (millimeter wave or higher band)". In response to the Applicant's remark, Devlin disclosed an MMIC transceiver circuit packaged (col.

1/In. 41-46, where it is clear that the MMIC transceiver circuit packages is a high power device having circuitry to perform both up-conversion and down-conversion of RF frequency signal at either millimeter or higher frequency range.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
